

MASTERCLASS RESEARCH - POLICY PARTNERSHIPS

Register Now

Are you a researcher interested in seeing your research translated into policy and practice?

Are you a policy professional interested in using evidence to improve your policy making?

Learning Objectives

- Examine the value of collaborative partnerships in producing evidence-informed policy
- Explore methods designed to enhance research and knowledge translation
- Clarify different terminologies used in research and policy making endeavors
- Become familiar with the key processes used in research and policy making

Masterclass Outcomes

- Share experiences with researchers and policy actors in an interactive space
- Develop skills and expertise in collaboration for research-to-policy translation
- Explore opportunities for working across research-policy boundaries
- Network and build research and policy partnerships

Course Information

Location | SAHMRI Auditorium, North Terrace, Adelaide SA 5000

Modules and Dates

Module 1: Concepts and Frameworks - 29/8/2023

Module 2: Tools and Skills -30/8/2023

Module 3: Application and Practice - 23/10/2023

Please note: Modules 2 and 3 are only available if Module 1 is attended.*

Costs:

Module 1: $495

Module 1, 2 & 3: $695

Who should attend?

- Researchers/Academics interested in research-to-policy translation
- Policy professionals and government/non-government officials, interested in evidence informed policy

Course Structure

This is an interactive short course that uses a 'learning by doing' approach. It includes lectures, small group work, self reflection, group discussion, and feedback from participants.

COURSE CONVENER

Carmel Williams

Director, Centre for Health in All Policies Research Translation, Health Translation SA and the School of Public Health, University of Adelaide

GUEST FACULTY

Fran Baum

Professor Fran Baum, Director, Health Equity, Stretton Institute, University of Adelaide

Adam Graycar

Director and Professor of Public Policy, Stretton Institute, The University of Adelaide

Tracy Merlin

Interim Head, School of Public Health Managing Director, Adelaide Health Technology Assessment, The University of Adelaide.

James Smith

Deputy Dean Rural and Remote Health - NT
Matthew Flinders Professor (Health and Social Equity)
College of Medicine & Public Health
Flinders University

PLEASE CLICK HERE TO REGISTER NOW